No flag but the Old Flag—the Red White and Blue

THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 2, 1863

Copperheads Down

The conservative democrats not in the rebel army,—for every soldier in its ranks sympathises with modern conservatism—are thinning out most rapidly They will under the power and pressure of popular wrath and contempt, like green grass in a hail storm The leaders, like John Van Buren and Gov Seymour, were the first to perceive that they were drifting to utter ruin, and were bearing with them the hopes and prosperity and life of the country, and though late, almost too late, patriotism or self interest grew stronger than political zeal, and they began to talk of the necessity of sustaining the Government and in favor of a more vigorous prosecution of the war. Their action has been very wholesome in its influence It has to a great extent dispersed the gathering clouds of discontent, which were spreading over the Northern horizon, and has left a purer and more patriotic atmosphere. We do not suppose that all the disposition that existed four months ago, to betray the Government and give aid and comfort to the rebellion, has wholly died out, indeed, we daily see and read evidence of disloyalty, on the part of those who are struggling like drowning men to get upon some kind of a democratic platform, so that they may have a place on which to fight, as well as opportunity to assist their late political comrades, now in arms and mutiny against liberty and the Union. We see this spirit in the non intervention humbug in Oregon, in the opposition to the settled policy of the Government, and in efforts to divide and distract loyal men But we are proud and rejoiced to be assured most indisputably that the great masses of the people in the free States are determined at least to agree in earnest and constant efforts for the overthrow of the Confederate conspiracy. When that is accomplished, there will be time enough for political contests, and for punishing, if need be, an Administration which has been unfaithful, but until then, the quarrels of the friends of the Union only strengthen the public enemy, while they weaken most essentially and effectively the power which ought to be all employed in behalf of a suffering, agonized country Let us all, 'democrats and republicans, remember this, and scourge as with whips of scorpions the treacherous and unprincipled demagogues, who may attempt in this hour of great national peril, to foment party disputes, and raise needless political issues—whose only purpose is, not the rebuke of the Administration for fancied or real errors, but the overthrow of the Government and the increase and success of rebellion Let it never be forgotten that patriots and traitors are the only classes, the only parties that exist, and that every man belongs to the one or the other There is no middle ground, and no one who obstructs or opposes the measures of the Government has a right to complain if he is denounced as a rebel, a copperhead, fit only to associate with the Carolina rattlesnakes

Drowned.—A letter from Mr J W Johnson to Hon. Geo. H Williams, says that Mr. Frank Rand, who was on the way to the mines in company with Mr J. H Boyd, of this place, was drowned from the steamer Cocodilla, on the 27th ult, under the following circumstances The steamer Cusca Zilla was attempting to ascend the rapids and had occasion to cross In crossing she drifted down and struck a hidden rock Mr Rand was standing on deck "amidships" and was thrown overboard by the concussion He swam towards shore for a time and then turned on his back and attempted to swim towards the boat which had been lowered and was pulling towards him When the boat was within ten or fifteen feet of him he sank a second time and was seen no more The water was very swift, and though every effort was made to save him it was without avail He had on very heavy boots which probably were the cause of his sinking so soon. For a time he swam very manfully but his efforts were fruitless Mr Rand was a son of E D Rand, of Burlington, Iowa

Another Outrage on Southern Rights—By recent intelligence, it appears that Capt Worden of the iron clad, Montauk, in a late attack upon rebel batteries, availed himself of the pilot services of a negro, who had dared to run away from his master The services were of great assistance to the Captain, but he had so little regard for the rights of the owner, that he did not flog the negro and send him back, according to the non intervention policy of the patriotic Mountaineer but actually retained him for future aid This is a case over which the Copperheads ought to shed tears, and utter maledictions upon the Government, and its officers, who carry on war in this unconstitutional way If they would only stop doing such things, "we should have peace in thirty days"

City Council.—No quorum present at the Council Chamber last evening Present—Messrs. Hallock Holmes Risley and Silvers Absent—Messrs Dennison and Williams.

An Address to the Democracy of Indiana

The following address signed by Gen Hovey and four Indiana Colonels now in Arkansas applies with as much force to the enemy of Oregon as to that of Indiana We ask our readers to give it attentive perusal

TO THE DEMOCRACY OF INDIANA

Having a deep interest in the future glory and welfare of our country, and believing that we occupy a position in which we can see the effects of the political struggle at home upon the lines and fields of the rebels we feel it to be our duty to speak to you plainly and plainly in regard to the same

The rebels of the South are leaning on the Northern democracy for support and it is unquestionably true that any such disposition to the Administration is giving aid and comfort to the enemy While it is the duty of patriots to oppose the usurpation of power it is alike their duty to avoid captious criticisms that might create the very evils which they attempt to avoid

The name of democrat is associated with all that is bright and glorious in the history of the past, is being sullied and disgraced by demagogues, who are appealing to the lowest prejudices and passions of our people We have nothing to expect from the South, and nothing to hope, with out their conquest They are now using their money freely to subsidize the press and politicians of the North and with what effect, the tone of some of our journals, and the speeches of some of our leaders, too plainly and painfully testify

We see with deep solicitude and regret that there is an undercurrent in Indiana, tending toward a coalition of the Northwest with the South, against the Eastern States Be not deceived Pause, for the love you bear your country, and reflect This movement is only a rebel scheme in disguise, that would involve you, alike with themselves, in the crime of rebellion, and bring to your own hearthstones the desolation of a French revolution Separation on either side with peace in the future is impossible, and we are compelled by self interest, by every principle of honor and every impulse of manhood, to bring this unholy contest to a successful termination

What! Admit that we are whipped? That twenty-three millions of Northern men are unequal to nine millions of the South? Shame on the State that would entertain so disgraceful a proposition! Shame upon the democrat who would submit to it, and raise his cowardly voice and claim that he was an Indianian! He, and such descendants, with their offspring, are fit 'mudsills," upon which should be built the lordly structure of their Southern aristocracy! And with whom would this unholy alliance be formed? With men who have forgotten their fathers—their oaths, their country, and their God—with guerrillas—cotton-burners—with those who force every male inhabitant of the South, capable of bearing arms, into the field though starving wives and babes are left behind! Men who persecute and hang or drive from their lines, every man, woman and child, who will not fall down and worship the Southern god And yet, free born men of our State, will sympathize with such tyrants, and dare even to dream of coalition! Indiana is proud and loyal legions number at least seventy thousand effective men in the field, and as with one great heart, we know they would repudiate all unholy combinations, tending to the dismemberment of our Government

In this dark hour of our country's trial, there is but one road to success and peace, and that is, to be as firmly united for our Government, as the rebels are against it Small differences of opinion amount to nothing in this grand struggle for a nation's existence Do not place even one straw in the way, and remember that every word you speak to encourage the South, nerves the arm and strikes the blow which is aimed at the heart's blood of our brothers and kindred

The Copperhead Demonstrations in the North.—Bishop Rosecrans, of Cincinnati, a brother of the General commanding the Army of the Cumberland, is an ardent anti slavery man and supporter of the present war policy of the Government Following the example set earlier in the war by Archbishop Purcell, chief of that diocese, he has preached a sermon or two on the subject of the war, in which he gave earnest expression to such views Gen Rosecrans, therefore, wrote him a letter expressing approval of his sermons, and added certain suggestions of his own The letter was published in the Catholic Telegraph of that city The Enquirer—the copperhead organ—took the General to task for his views, charging him with having degenerated into an abolitionist, etc The General has just written a second letter to the Bishop, in which he says

You see the Enquirer abuses me for speaking the truth Woe even to them if they do not credit my testimony about the cruelty, injustice and treachery of the Confederate leaders! If ever those leaders, through the Providence of God and the baseness and folly of the people of the loyal States, gain the power, I am persuaded that the persons, who have succeeded by the hugest and most perseverings lies, in getting men to engage in war—who have called out 'friends" to decoy and murder our pickets—have borne our flag and worn our uniform to deceive us in battle—violated the rights of truce—fired on a hospital boat and killed wounded men by that and by exposing them to rain and mud—who teach and encourage women to perjure themselves—who inculcate guerrilla warfare—who murder Union men and strip their families of their property—and boast of chivalry—that these men who violate all rights that stand in the way of their unjust desires, can never be trusted in any other way than you trust wild beasts when you have them secure, caged and chained! And do you think the voice of those who stay at home should be raised to cheer on our enemies and discourage us? to raise enemies around us and strengthen the hands of those, who, as Jeff Davis said, "only lack the power to own the Ohio?" Shall the fathers and brothers of those brave and honest men who have periled their lives for the country and the safety of home turn against them? Shall the men who are getting rich off the Government patronage—who sleep quietly and peacefully in their beds because we watch here in cold and wet, stab us in the back and denounce us? Spectator in Domino non confundar in æternum

Contracts Payable in Gold, Declared Valid.—A most important feature of our telegraphic dispatches to day, is the announcement of the legality of contracts for the future delivery of gold and silver coin and bullion It appears that such contracts to be valid—if to be performed after a period of three days from date—must contain a stamp of one half of one per cent the amount of the obligation The effect has apparently been to make all contracts founded upon gold and silver pay a heavy tax to the Government In California where interest upon money is high one half per cent will not interfere essentially with or injure business.—S F Bulletin

News from the Mines

We take the following items from the Golden Era of March 29th

Letters from all parts of the mines in the vicinity of Florence City came to us filled with cheering news of their future prospects the coming season Everything indicates a prosperous season all through the mining country so far as we are able to judge We give our readers a sample of one letter from Florence During a visit to mining here once more we hear the cheerful sound of water as it rushes along through our golden avenues The miners are busily at work preparing for washing, while some are already taking out the shining dust from many of the earth Miners wages are from six to eight dollars per day But the latter sum is only paid to those who agree to work for the season in one employ

Dreadful Accident.—A party of miners who were on their way from Warren's Diggings to Florence were coming down Salmon river they found it necessary to get up on the sides of the mountains to avoid the air holes in the ice and while endeavoring to pass in this manner places an immense avalanche of snow rocks and trees came down from the almost overhanging cliffs and instantly killed one man named Noah Parr and broke the leg of a Mr Robert Raney who also received a frightful wound in the face by a rock, and what makes it more unfortunate for the wounded man is that he is about twenty miles from any cabin Dr McMillon and some others have been out to where the wounded man lays and have carried a tent provisions &c The Doctor says he is getting along finely considering the circumstances

One Hundred Guns for Idaho.—On Sunday last several of our patriotic citizens obtained two anvils, and fired one hundred guns in honor of our recognition as an integral portion of the glorious Union Nine cheers for Idaho—the Gem of the Mountains—were given in tones that will vibrate through every part of our beautiful Territory

A Rich Sabbat Match and What Came of it.—The Chicago Journal, of recent date, says

In yesterday's Journal we gave an account of a coroner's inquest held upon the body of Augustus C Brodhead, who died Monday night with epileptic convulsions As stated yesterday Brodhead was formerly an officer of the British army, and had served with distinction in India But since that publication a gentleman intimately acquainted with him has given us additional and highly interesting particulars regarding the career of this man A few years ago Brodhead was in the prime of vigorous manhood and wearing upon the dashing artillery uniform of the British service several royal medals, which he had earned by bravery and success formed the acquaintance of a wealthy baroness of the Puget family one of the most aristocratic houses of England That acquaintance immediately became a love match and the unrelenting opposition of her family only served to make it a run away match The happy couple spent their honeymoon upon the continent, visited Italy, Switzerland, and the Egyptian Pyramids and two years ago came to Illinois and purchased a farm near Clifton, in Iroquois county

Brodhead was as ignorant of agricultural science as he was proficient in that of gunnery and projectiles And when to this serious impediment is added a deep-seated habit of dissipation—an inordinate fondness for the wine-cup—which his free and easy life had engendered and which most unfortunately was shared by his wife, we have the sum total of causes sufficient to blast any man's prospects in life His failure in an agricultural line only confirmed him as a drunkard, and hastened the denouement An ardent lover of field sports, his dog and gun were in constant requisition, and his heavy libations on such occasions more than once laid him out for a night's lodging on the prairies. His wife, once a pet of British aristocratic circles, and at one time maid of honor to the Queen though a highly accomplished lady, an excellent musician, and speaking with fluency several different languages, soon became even more besotted than himself She died drunk a year ago, and Brodhead was in such a state of beastly intoxication as to be unable to comprehend the fact Since that time he has been rapidly "going under" His property dwindling away for years, soon vanished and at the time of his death we find that he had been driven to the extremity of pawning his golden medals Truly, 'truth is stranger than fiction'

The French Black Regiments,—The correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Washington under date of February 20, gives the following definition of the intention of Louis Napoleon in introducing black regiments into Mexico:

Private letters from Paris state that the design of the French Government in borrowing a regiment of blacks from the Pasha of Egypt, is not simply to garrison the places exposed to the yellow fever, but also to introduce the cultivation of cotton in Mexico The black soldiers knew the method of cultivation before entering the Pasha's service. Some of them are to act as supervisors in the cotton fields, and will have the whole management of the business The cotton it is known grows wild in certain regions of Mexico, and it would need very little exertion to bring it to a state of perfection, and to accustom to that culture the Indian who is active intelligent, and desirous to emerge from the position of peon which he now occupies, to resume his independence and receive the pay of a free man

The presence of black soldiers is not a new thing with the French Their regiments of forces formed in Algeria are mostly composed of Africans as black as jet The valor of these troops in the various campaigns which, for over 20 years, the French have carried on in that region, and their exploits through the Italian war rank them among the bravest men in existence It must be said in explanation of their gallantry that they enjoy a perfect equality with the other soldiers of the army, and that no distinction of race or color is made, either in a military or social point of view between the blacks and the whites

The blacks borrowed from the Pasha of Egypt are not the first to serve with the French army in Mexico There are besides, four companies of colored men taken from the islands of Martinique and Guadaloupe They were employed as engineers at Vera Cruz and at different places in the interior where they more than once met and put to flight the Mexican guerrillas A special report has even been made by the officer in command of them to the French Government and it is expected that several of them will receive the decoration of the Legion of Honor for their gallant conduct in the field

Rebel Authority in Alabama Resisted—The rebel authorities find it difficult to keep the people of Northern Alabama in subjection to their authority The Selma Reporter of a late date says

A subscriber at Village Springs Jefferson county Ala writes to us that the mountains there abounds are infested with deserters and there will be trouble to avoid engaging them for the country He learns that they number between 75 and 100 and that they have already killed two men and greatly pillaged private houses of all guns and ammunition that they could find We regret to learn of the existence of such a state of affairs in our State, and hope the military authorities will immediately take the matter in hand They should endeavor to rid the country of all such cutthroat devils as speedily as possible

The recent event in the mountains of North Carolina, where a strong band of Unionists had to be put down by force of arms by our old Gen Lee, and the still later demonstrations by armed Unionists in the western part of Texas, show that some disaffection exists towards rebel rule There is however not enough of it to give hope that rebel operations can ever become crippled thereby Such spots of their sway that the smallest symptom of rebellion any movement is instantly put down with an iron hand

Gen Sumner's Last Battle Field.—In a letter written to San Francisco just after the battle of Fredericksburg, by a member of the staff of the late Major General Sumner, occurs the following passage

Our brave old General acted as usual The General of a great army he is anxious to lead a charge in person (as he did at Fair Oaks) as he was when colonel of a dragoon regiment When our columns had been driven back perfectly shattered to pieces and it had been demonstrated that no matter what their courage could storm the heights under the concentrated fire of artillery Gen Sumner rode forward and announced his intention of leading the next assault in person. Fortunately, Gen Burnside was on the spot and requested him not to do so Had he attempted it, the inevitable result would have been death to him and probably to most of his staff. The General with his white hair and splendid horsemanship, is a most conspicuous figure on the field, and no mounted officer attempted to go up the slope that day but was cut down

The most important revolution ever brought about in the clothing trade is being effected by the enterprising firm of Houston Hastings & Co, the great outfitters of Lick House, Montgomery street, San Francisco You can procure at their store goods of the very latest style and only of the best quality, for they keep no inferior goods The busy aspect of their premises witnesses that the public fully appreciate their talents We doubt if any three clothing stores in San Francisco equal the amount of goods they dispose of daily

News.—We may expect later news from the East by overland stage on Friday

CONFLAGRATION.—We publish this morning the request of many Union citizens, that ward meetings may be held this evening to make arrangements for the election on Monday next. We trust that every voter who cares for the welfare and prosperity of the city, will attend these meetings and assist in preparing such a ticket as will command public confidence and insure success. It cannot be denied that the present "institution" is a sublime humbug and a ridiculous libel upon intelligent city government. The Council refuses to meet—public interests are neglected,—when it does meet, time is spent, not in devising modes for the public benefit and improvement, but in a manner not creditable to the members or the city. Taxes enough are raised to secure good streets and a general system of improvement, but in place of these, the money is spent for other purposes and goes into pockets where it does not benefit the city. If our organization is to be kept up, it is worth sustaining creditably and well. If it is a shame to each and all that indifference exists; we trust that every citizen will feel his individual responsibility and act as though he felt it.

STEAMER.—The steamer Sierra Nevada sailed yesterday at four o'clock. She took away a very heavy freight, and a large number of horses, cattle and sheep, for Victoria. We could not learn the exact amount of treasure shipped, but understand that it was large.

SCHOOL NOTICE.—We notice by handbills posted in the city that a meeting of the citizens of this school district will be held on Monday evening next. A full attendance of all interested is requested.

ANOTHER SALE TO-DAY.—M. Mansfield sells at auction at credit sale a large and extensive assortment of crockery, assorted merchandise, and also bedroom furniture. The auction rooms have been removed to No. 50, on the south side of Front street.

CHILDREN'S TREAT.—The winter term of the public school closed yesterday. A picnic was given to the children, who enjoyed themselves highly. Under the care of Mr. Frambes the school has progressed very favorably.

GREENBACKS.—Greenbacks were selling yesterday at 62½ and 65 cents.

EXCELLENT CIDER.—Yesterday Mr Humiston, of Humiston, Wilson & Co., opened a barrel of cider put up by Humiston & Ma'Dan about three years ago. It was of excellent flavor and good body, proving conclusively that when properly made it will keep any length of time desired. Farmers need have no fear of raising too many apples for cider, and manufacturing a beverage which will be largely consumed by our mining population, and which is much more healthy than the detestable stuff commonly termed "bad whisky."

Notice.—A Special Meeting of the Trustees of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary, at the Academy, Building, on Friday evening, April 24, at 7½ o'clock, is called. A full attendance is requested.

THOMAS H PEARNE, Prest.
A C Gibbs Sec'y.

Multnomah Engine No. 1.—Regular Meeting this evening at 7½ o'clock. REN. L. NORDEY, Sec'y.

Dr. Hall's Balsam.—For the cure of long standing Coughs and Colds, Bronchitis, as well as CONSUMPTION, this medicine is invaluable. Its peculiar combination is the result of experience and an intimate knowledge of the cause of these diseases and the certificates of remarkable cures are sufficient proof of its superiority.

DR. BAKER'S
PAIN PANACEA.
Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oil and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most confidently say that I have never known any, however delicate to be injured by it in the least I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent of whom the medicine is got for.
If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.
If you have a Bruise or Wound bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time
If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning noon and night, it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease
If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.
If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea, to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day
If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.
If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and to the gum at the same time, it will stop the pain instantly
If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night, at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally
If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.
If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea
If you have a wound, cut or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea, it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time

Meenie, Meenie!

A little grave where lilies grow
A little body lying low
That breathed the world in its know
But not its cares
Had a baby sweet and fair
A little face and sunny hair
Children that I met yesterday and ear—
Meenie Meenie

In the sweet spring her lay
We gave her to the kindly clay
From our tear-dimmed eyes away
How we loved her none will tell
They who have lost like us can well
Loved and lost, though only tell—
Meenie, Meenie!

Wistful shadows in her place
Like the dreamy haze that lies
Trembling in the summer skies
And the burden of a fear
All unspoken yet so near
Fell on us that weary year—
Meenie Meenie

Shrinking, fearful their sighs glee
Keeping close to its fair kind
Of its arms that testified
Watched her ailing fate blighted—
Faded she must pass fair
Child of clear as day and rare—
Meenie Meenie

Swift the seasons come to pass
Thickly falls the drifting snow
O'er a little grave we know
But her feet
Have passed in at a pearly door
Have trod its shining golden floor
Fair and fleet as ever more—

The Democratic party

The Democratic party.
Who, with the above facts staring them in the face, are continually yelping and hypocritically whining about "Nigger Suffrage" and "Nigger Equality?"
The Democratic party.
All these things were done by the Democratic party, and yet they deny being in favor of negro equality, and put it upon others — Jackson, Ohio, Standard

DID ANYBODY SAY ANYTHING ABOUT ME?—Away up in the northern part of Vermont, there is a primitive sort of little village, where not long since, the rustic youth of the vicinity congregated for a dance, and dance they did, with an unction unknown to city belles and beaux. One interesting young man, having imbibed rather too freely, became "fatigued in the course of the evening, and wisely concluded to retire for a short rest A door near the dance hall revealed, invitingly, a glimpse of a comfortable bed, of which he took possession, with the prospect of an undisturbed snooze It so happened, however, that this was the ladies' withdrawing room, and so sooner had he closed his eyes, than a pair of blooming damsels came in from the hall and began adjusting their disordered ringlets, the dim light of the candle not revealing the tenant of the bed The girls had tongues, (like most of their sex) which ran in this wise:

"What a nice dance we're having! Did you hear anybody say anything about me Jane?"

"La, yes, Sally! Jim Brown says he never saw you look so handsome as you do to-night Have you heard anybody say anything about me?"

"About you? why sartin! I heard Joe Flint tell Sam Jones that you were the prettiest dressed girl in the room!"

Whereupon the dear things chuckled. "fixed up" a little more, and made off toward the ball room. They had hardly reached the door, when our half conscious friend raised himself upon his elbow, and quite intelligibly, though slowly, inquired

"I say, galls! did you hear anybody say anything about me?"

"Phancy their phelinks" at this juncture! They fled with an explosive scream

ANECDOTE OF GENERAL BUTLER.—The following story is told of General Butler

"I will not go back to New Orleans" says the General, "unless I can have more troops Why can't you give me more?' 'We have n't them to give,' replied Lincoln 'Then why don't you raise more? put the draft upon New York, raise that forty thousand who should have been raised in that State last Fall" "Seymour says it will not do to draft in New York," answers Lincoln "Then I would draft Seymour!" asserts Butler

The spirits have predicted in Andrew Jackson Davis' paper, that France will soon be fighting for the Confederacy and England for us. Mr. Davis has weekly despatches about the war by spiritual telegraph, but this is the first definite prediction they have ventured to make We shall see how near they get to the truth

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK.

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach, Dyspepsia, Etc.

DYSPEPSIA, Mar 1 1855

DR J C AYER Sir I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache by one dose of your Pills A dose or two of your Pills has most surprising effect upon the liver and bowels A dose or two is sufficient to regulate and bring an exceedingly neuralgic stomach which ended in chronic rheumatism Notwithstanding I had the best physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr Mackenzie, I tried your Pills Their effects were slow but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

VINCENT SIBLEY.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge they are an excellent remedy

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are unrivaled and effectual

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues Through every town and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects, and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable; nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals eats your life away

All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than assure them it is still made the best it can be We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and the afflicted those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.
